Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors
Capitol Land Trust
Lacey, WA

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Capital Land Trust (the Trust), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Trust as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Trust and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Trust's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control–related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2021 and 2020

A. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Organization, purpose and principal program--

The mission of Capitol Land Trust (The Trust) is to strategically conserve vital natural areas and working lands in the South Puget Sound and Chehalis Basin watersheds, for their ecological and community benefits.

The Trust receives a substantial amount of its annual support in the form of government grants. In the event one or more of the government programs from which the grants are received were to end or experience significant budget cuts, The Trust could experience a significant loss of support.

Basis of accounting--

The Trust's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting. Revenue is recognized when earned, and expenditures are recognized when incurred. If an expenditure results in an asset having an estimated useful life which extends substantially beyond the year of acquisition, the expenditure is capitalized and depreciated or amortized over the estimated useful life of the asset

Financial Statement Presentation--

The Trust follows accounting prescribed by the Financial Accounting Standards Board in its Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 958 Not-for Profit Entities. Under ASC 958, The Trust is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets: with donor restrictions, and without donor restrictions.

With Donor Restrictions: Net assets that result from contributions whose use by The Trust is restricted by donor imposed stipulations that may expire with the passage of time or can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by actions of The Trust.

Without Donor Restrictions: Net assets that are not restricted by donor stipulation.

Gifts of goods and equipment are reported as without donor restrictions unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Gifts of land are reported as donor restricted if The Trust intends to protect the land in perpetuity. Gifts of land, which the donor stipulates may be sold, are reported as without donor restriction.

Estimates--

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that effect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Capitol Land Trust
A Washington Not For Profit Organization

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2021 and 2020

Land, buildings and equipment--

Land, buildings and equipment are recorded at cost. Property and equipment donated to The Trust are capitalized at their estimated fair market value. It is The Trust's policy to expense the acquisition cost of equipment in the year of purchase for items with a unit cost of less than $5,000. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method. A five-year life is used for both purchased and donated equipment. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred; major renewals and improvements are capitalized. When items of equipment are sold or are otherwise disposed of, the appropriate cost and related accumulated depreciation amounts are removed from the accounts and any gain or loss is included in income.

Functional Allocation of Expenses--

The Trust records its expenses by function. Program expenses represent expenses incurred to fulfill The Trust's exempt purposes. Management and general expenses support that exempt purpose while fundraising expenses are incurred to raise resources to carry out program activities. Expenses are recorded, when appropriate, to the function receiving direct benefit. When expenses benefit more than one function, an allocation is made based on relative benefits provided to each function.

Cash and Cash Equivalents--

For purposes of the Statement of Cash Flows, The Trust considers cash, checking, and money market accounts to be cash and cash equivalents.

Advertising--

The Trust's policy is to expense advertising costs as they are incurred.

B. RECOGNITION OF CONTRIBUTION REVENUE:

Contributions are recognized when received or when a donor makes an unconditional promise to give to the organization. Contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restrictions expire in the year in which the contributions are recognized. All other donor restricted contributions are reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions. When a restriction expires, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions.

Unconditional promises to give (pledges receivable) are recognized as revenues in the period the pledge is received. Long term pledges (collection expected in greater than one year) are discounted to the net present value of future cash flows. Conditional promises to give are recognized only when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met and the promise becomes unconditional.

E. ECONOMIC DEPENDENCY:

For 2021 and 2020, the funding used to acquire land was primarily provided by the State of Washington Recreation and Conservation Office, State of Washington Department of Ecology, and the Thurston County Resource Stewardship office .

F. LEASES:

The Trust signed a five year lease for a new office space in Lacey, Washington, in February of 2017 which commenced in March of 2017. Office lease expense under this arrangement was $25,845 and $25,740 for the years ended December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020, respectively. On December 1, 2020, the Trust signed a lease addendum that postponed a scheduled increase of rent on March, 1, 2021 until March 1, 2022.

Future rental payments under this arrangement are as follows:

Year Ending December 31:	2021
2022	$ 6,461
Total:	$ 6,461

G. INVESTMENTS & FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS:

The investments in mutual funds and money market funds are accounted for at fair value. As of December 31, 2021, the investments had a cost basis of $2,301,246 and a fair value of $3,091,081. As of December 31, 2020, the investments had a cost basis of $1,999,325 and a fair value of $2,471,082. Investment income on the statement of activities and changes in net assets is the following:

	2021	2020
Unrealized gain	$ 226,258	$ 246,937
Realized gain	47,586	21,069

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2021 and 2020

The Trust adopted Accounting Standards Codification 958 as of January 1, 2009. ASC 958, Fair Value Measurements, establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 Measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 Measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under ASC 958 are described as follows:

Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that The Trust has the ability to access.

Level 2: Inputs to valuation methodology include: Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets. Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets. Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability. Inputs that are principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2021.

Mutual Funds: Valued at the net asset value (NAV) of shares held by The Trust at year end.

Common Stock: Market value on public exchanges.

Certificates of Deposit: Valued at original investment plus received and accrued interest.

Money Market Funds: The investments are reported at face value plus accrued interest.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although The Trust believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

H. GRANTS RECEIVABLE:

Grants receivable are recorded to the extent of qualifying grant expenditures made during the current year that are to be reimbursed after year end.

Historically, bad debts have been immaterial. The Trust uses the direct write-off method, which is not in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. When an amount becomes uncollectible, it is charged to expense in the year it is deemed to be uncollectible. During 2021 and 2020, there were bad debts of $0. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, management estimated that all accounts receivable were collectible. The Trust considers all receivables over 90 days as past due. No interest is charged on past due receivables. As of December 31, 2021, no receivable amounts were past due.

I. CONTINGENCIES:

Amounts received or receivable from federal and state government agencies are subject to audit and potential adjustment by the contracting agencies. Any disallowed claims, including amounts already collected, would become a liability of The Trust if so determined in the future. It is management's belief that no material amounts received or receivable will be required to be returned in the future.

J. INKIND REVENUE:

During 2020, The Trust received property donations with a fair market value of $72,500. These donations were recorded as inkind revenue and capitalized as land on the statement of financial position. The Trust received inkind donations of professional services, supplies, and miscellaneous items during 2020 valued at $775. The donations are recorded as inkind revenue and expense in the financial statements.

K. INCOME TAX & UNCERTAIN TAX POSITIONS:

The Trust is a tax exempt non-profit organization under the Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and is not classified as a private foundation. Accordingly, the financial statements do not include any provision for income taxes.

The Trust files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction. The Trust is no longer subject to U.S. federal income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2018.

Currently, there are no examinations or pending examinations with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

The Trust adopted the provisions of FASB ASC 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, on January 1, 2009. As of December 31, 2021, there are no tax positions for which the deductibility is certain but for which there is uncertainty regarding the timing of such deductibility.

L. PLEDGES RECEIVABLE:

The Trust received, in 2020, several unconditional promises to give. The promises have been recorded as pledge receivable and contribution revenue for 2020. The pledge balance at December 31, 2020 totaled $40. All outstanding pledges were collected during the 2021 year.

M. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS:

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization officially declared COVID-19, the disease caused by the novel coronavirus, a pandemic. COVID-19 has required the Trust to make adjustments to operating practice and delivery of services. The Trust has continued its work. Management is closely monitoring the evolution of this pandemic, including how it may affect the economy and the general population.

No other events have occurred through May 9, 2022, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued based on client facts and circumstances, for events requiring recording or disclosure in the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2021.

N. MAYTOWN CONSERVATION FUND:

The Trust, during 2011, entered into an agreement with the Black Hills Audubon Society (BHAS) to act as fund administrator for a mitigation fund called the Maytown Conservation Fund (Fund). The Fund was created as a result of a settlement agreement with a private company.

The Trust agreed to act as custodian of the Fund and to process invoices submitted by BHAS as qualifying expenditures are made. The Trust, per the agreement, has sole discretion to determine that expenditures submitted for payment are for activities that are consistent with the settlement agreement and an annual work plan submitted by BHAS.

The Fund is presented as an other asset and liability in the statement of financial position.

O. PAYCHECK PROTECTION PROGRAM LOAN:

On February 22, 2021, the Trust received a loan of $116,659 loan from Umpqua Bank. The loan was part of the Paycheck Protection Program, which is a United States Government program intended to mitigate the economic impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic. The loan was guaranteed by the United States Small Business Administration and carried a stated interest rate of 1%. The loan term was two years from inception, with interest payments starting on the 7th month following origination. However, the loan was eligible for forgiveness if the loan proceeds were used to subsidize payroll and certain occupancy costs of the Trust. The Trust used the loan proceeds for eligible expenses during 2021 and has recorded $116,659 as grant income in the financial statements. The loan was formally forgiven in 2021.
